Accommodation

Exclusive use Lodge, Hownam (Self catering)

This beautiful lodge, set in 7000 heather-clad acres in the Cheviot hills, offers luxurious, purpose built shooting accommodation and total privacy between the historic towns of Kelso and Jedburgh.

Originally built in the Georgian period as a shooting lodge for the Roxburghshire estate, the lodge has been totally refurbished to the highest standard, offering bespoke accommodation for a maximum of 16 guests.

There is an elegant drawing room and stunning dining room at the front of the house, a fabulous large kitchen with wood burning stove with French doors to the walled garden, a TV room and a games room. The lodge's 9 bedrooms are all individually themed with stunning décor, luxurious bathrooms, sitting areas, TVs and hairdryers.

The extensive gardens provide excellent views of the Cheviots with plenty of space for activities, games, etc. The walled garden has two patios, fully furnished with loungers, tables and chairs, and a stone-walled barbecue area for 20+.
